When Joseph brings his 130 year old father to Egypt, to seek refuge from the famine in Canaan, Jacob is granted a royal audience with the Pharaoh. On his entrance and at his departure, Genesis says that Jacob blessed Pharaoh. According to the Letter to the Hebrews, the lesser person is blessed by the greater; which is what we might expect; yet here the refugee Jacob blesses the king of Egypt – something of a paradox? It might be a peculiarity of the language; but it doesn't sound as though Jacob was humbling himself. Maybe it's a sign of the esteem in which Joseph was held. All we're told of the conversation is that Pharaoh asks him his age: perhaps it's that which generates the sense of mutual respect in the encounter. Long life was taken as a sign of God's favour: hence the age inflation in the sagas of Genesis.

We wouldn't make a direct connection today (otherwise what do you say of those who die young?) yet it's hard to be anything other than respectful towards long life or long service. We have a remarkable instance of both to celebrate in our Queen's Platinum Jubilee. Certain aspects of the monarchy in this country are somewhat paradoxical; and the Queen often has to embody apparent opposites. There will be pageantry and formality to mark the occasion: the monarchy needs to speak to us of continuity, hence the high degree of tradition; yet a tradition that continually has to be examined and reinterpreted, lest the institution appear outdated. The popular celebrations around the extended holiday – the street parties, fetes and community gatherings – will highlight that part of the genius of the Queen is that she belongs to us all. Yet not in such a way that we feel we can dictate what she does or is: she is above all that. The Prime Minister equally belongs to us all; but the political dimension means that the PM will always attract controversy. The Queen, although head of state, exercises no political power at all. Although in theory nobody dictates what she does, in practice her role demands a lot of her; and she is rarely free to reveal her own thoughts or display her real feelings. There must be a fair degree of tedium about some of the things she is called on to do: yet she discharges her duties with grace. Despite the trappings of wealth and privilege, an important aspect of her role is to bring recognition and honour to the things and people of ordinary life – bestowing a kind of blessing.

And we have been richly blessed these last 70 years through her sense of duty and service; by her wisdom, grace and sense of humour. And so we rightly rejoice, and pray for God's continued blessing on her – especially as she copes with the frustrations and restrictions of advanced age (although maybe there are some compensations: I'm sure she prefers the Royal Windsor Horse Show to the State Opening of Parliament!). In this part of her reign, as much as at its beginning, we know she will be seeking the guidance and strength of God.

In the love of God,

Martin Greenland

Joan Cator and Margery Ellson

It is with sadness that we note the death of Joan Cator (late of Freethorpe).

Joan was a very active member of the All Saints congregation and served as churchwarden for many years.

Joan hosted Ladies Christian Link (with the help of her family in the later years) and enjoyed welcoming the ladies into her home-quite often it was a tight squeeze!

She was involved in numerous activities in the village and always did things with a willingness and a smile.

In her final years Joan was cared for by the staff at Hethersett Hall residential home.

Our condolences go to Joan's family.

We also report the death of Margery Ellson. Rev. Monty Ellson was very active in the life of Freethorpe Church and took many services here and Margery enjoyed Christian Link and helped organise speakers after she retired as Head Teacher at Heartsease First School. She died on 5th April, her funeral was at Horning Church on April 22nd (they moved to Horning on leaving Freethorpe)

THE TWO-RIVERS ORGAN CRAWL – Wickhampton+

St Andrew’s at Wickhampton was the first stop for Michael Nicholas on his mammoth organ crawl for charity on 23 April 2022 – St George’s Day. Just over 40 people took a pew to listen to the recital at 10am, and we were treated to some wonderful organ music, including a “surprise” piece - The Teddy Bears’ Picnic - in honour of Wickhampton’s famous Teddy Bear Parachute Day! Many thanks to Michael.

Reedham & District W.I.

Reedham and District WI are back in full swing with regular meetings and social activities. This month we enjoyed a talk by Helen Davies who is a Tropics Skincare ambassador, a craft meeting, a charity walk out to Ness Point (on a particularly challenging windy day) and lunch together. We have plans for the Jubilee weekend with a bric a brac stall on Riverside and providing tea and cakes for the community event at Reedham church on 3rd June. The Queen has been a member of the Norfolk federation of WIs since 1943, and we will also be holding our own celebration on Tue.7th June in place of our regular 1st Tuesday of the month meeting at the village hall. Local women are always welcome to join us.

Our nationwide campaign for 2022 is the under-identification of women and girls with ASD and ADHD, which may be of interest to some of you.

We can be contacted via reedhamwi@btinternet.com

Mary Jones

Easter Flowers at St Andrew’s, Wickhampton

Thank you to everyone who created the lovely floral displays in the church at Easter, accompanied by cards remembering loved ones; the flowers lasted for several weeks, and brightened up the church with beautiful spring colours.

Reedham Ringers

The ringers will be involved in hosting the Jubilee Jolly at Reedham church to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee – see the following advert. In addition we will be allowing people up the tower to see the bells, which is not an opportunity that happens often, so do come along and have a look at the biggest instrument in the village – the original heavy metal that has hung there for hundreds of years. There will also be a chance to see what the ringers do and even have a try if you are interested.

We will start at 2pm. and hope to see you then.

We will also be ringing from 19.52pm to 20.22pm on Thursday June 2nd to mark the 70 years of the Queen's reign. Mary Jones

The poster features a purple circular logo on the left with the text 'THE QUEEN'S PLATINUM JUBILEE 2022' around the perimeter and a central emblem with the number '70'. To the right, the text reads: 'You are warmly invited to the JUBILEE JOLLY Friday 3rd June 2-5pm in and around Reedham Church (parking in Pettitts Car park, by kind permission)'. Below this, a list of activities is provided: '* Children's art competition  Reedham School country dancing ', ' Humpty Dumpty Brewery & their Jubilee Mild ', ' tower trips to see the bells  WI tea & cakes ', ' screening of Reedham's Silver Jubilee celebrations  fun tug-of-war ', and ' Chesca's pizzas  sideshows  celebratory ringing *'.

RINGING FOR THE QUEEN!

Due to the prevailing winds, the Reedham Church bells can rarely be heard by most of the village, but you might like to listen out especially or come to the churchyard to hear us ring on Thursday 2nd June. To celebrate Her Majesty's 70 year reign, we shall be ringing from 7.52 to 8.22pm. Strange timing you may think, but of course using the 24 hour clock it is 1952 to 2022, that's 70 years.

Diana Gilder

Cantley & District W.I.

Our next meeting will be held on Wednesday June 15th in Cantley Village Hall at 7.30pm. Our speaker for the evening will be Hazel Gillingham and the subject of her talk, one of the founders of The National Trust, Octavia Hill.

New members always very welcome. For more information contact Barbara on 07789845050

What can I say, these months seem to be flying by. The club will celebrate 5 birthdays this month, two milestone ones are Wendy Brister 70th & Pat Bloom 90th. With the lovely buffet food we will all soon have to adjust our waist lines!! Thank you to everyone who contributes to these buffets it is very much appreciated.

The next celebration will be the Queens Jubilee and the club members are being asked to wear something red, white & blue and I have been able to acquire an unexpected guest for the afternoon, which hopefully will bring a smile to their faces.

We meet every Tuesday at 1.30pm at Reedham Village Hall, if you want to come and join our ever growing family just turn up, we would love to see you. The annual membership is £7.00 and it is £2.50 for the afternoon. You can play 4 games of prize bingo and after refreshments and a natter we play the Flyer for cash. Then there is a free raffle and I will tell you a couple of jokes to round off the afternoon to make you smile. Once a month we have a cash raffle, we sell the tickets and split the money 50/50 with the members. Depending on how much we take two members can win a cash prize. Two members won £18 each in the April draw. Members still have a free draw that day as well.

Once a month we have a bring and buy sale in the refreshment break and before we start the club.

LOTTERY NEWS

The lottery bingo game is now entering its 5th week and I have two people waiting for one number, so we could have a winner this Saturday May 14th but who knows, as it is based on the lottery numbers anything can happen. Our jackpot prize grows each week it is not won, the last winner claimed £288.00, which with the cost of living at the moment is very handy money. At the end of each year we also donate to charity. If you want to join it is open to non members too, so just give me a call on 07585504199 it is £1.00 per week.

Acle Society

14.

There was a very pleasant surprise in store for retiring Acle Society chairman John Harriss at the Society's annual general meeting held at Acle Methodist church on the evening of Tuesday April 26th. John, who has held the post of since 1976, was standing down to be replaced by Vernon Cumpstey, pictured presenting a bouquet to John's wife, Brenda. Vernon thanked John for all the support he has given the Society over so many years and handed him a handsome collection of garden vouchers.

John's association with the Society will continue, however, for some years to come as its new President.

The highlight of the meeting was a fascinating talk by Mrs Freya Barker, a paramedic with the East of England Ambulance Service. She covered all aspects of what you should know about our local ambulance services. She is pictured with the Society's retiring chairman John Harriss.

A vote of thanks later proposed by the incoming chairman Vernon Cumpstey was greeted by a huge round of applause. The evening concluded with refreshments and a raffle.

Reedham School Art Award

Owl Class at Reedham School recently visited the church to sketch it. Afterwards, their efforts were submitted to a competition run by the Historic Churches Trust for Norfolk, and one of the pupils won 1st Prize in the Year 3/4 category for her efforts. She also won for the School £100 which will be spent on Art within the school.

Two Rivers Organ Crawl

All of Michael Nicholas's mini organ recitals at 7 of the Benefice Churches were well attended and very well received. Some of his audience managed to cycle to every one of them, despite a stiff easterly wind!

£2,410 was raised through the 'Just Giving' website, with another £1,655 by cash and cheque. Some expenses have yet to be deducted, but the total profit will be split between the Royal College of Organists, the new Priscilla Bacon Lodge and the Acle and Bure to Yare Benefice Funds. Many thanks to those who donated, put on refreshments, attended, but most of all to Michael for some magnificent, and sometimes amusing, music.
