The majority of the gravestones in this area have beautiful stone-masonry and they all deserve a second look for their sometimes intricate craftsmanship. There are however 2 stones, which are of special interest and deserve even more attention.

1.
ROBERT ELWIN no. 39b

Interesting headstone as the stone mason of the time(1821) is showing us all the symbols of a Freemason as Robert Elwin was a Freemason; these symbols would not have been carved on his Headstone if he was not.

2.
JOHN WILLIAM SALES no. 89

The headstone shows a 2 masted boat with full 'sails'. Was this man a sailmaker or a boatbuilder? Due to weather conditions over a span of about 150 years the 'boat' shows signs of weathering, but the craftsmanship of the stone-mason can still be admired.

An interesting verse can be found on the grave of
STEPHEN LAWS no. 39c

*'O let my sudden doom
A warning be to all
For whilst thou bendest o'er my tomb
Thou may'st as quickly fall'*

The following verse is from the gravestone of
FREDERICK GEORGE AND CHRISTIANNA SALES no. 62
(referring to Frederick George Sales)

*'His weary hours, his days of pain
His weary nights are passed.
His ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last
Safe in the arms of Jesus'.*

A verse found on the gravestone of
MARY-ANN EDWARDS no. 95

*'A light is from our household gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled'.*

And of
BARZILLAI IVES no. 56

*'Though cast down, we are not forsaken,
Though afflicted not alone,
Thou didst give and thou hast taken,
Blessed Lord, thy will be done.*

In life beloved, in death lamented'.
