The area known as E-1 consists mostly of headstones showing outstanding beautiful masonry and is probably the most beautiful of all area's. Also, the area of the trees have an aura of peace and tranquility and is not matched by any of the other area's in the churchyard, but of course this may just be a personal observation.

To name a few of the beautiful headstones:

Grave no. 27 of Daniel Benns

Grave no. 31 of Ernest John Girling Harmer

Grave no. 37 of Noah and Charlotte Stone

Grave no. 40 of Arthur and Ann Cable

Grave no. 41 of Charles and Amelia Hall

Grave no. 61 of Harriet Elizabeth Williams

Grave no. 62 of Elizabeth Hindle

Grave no. 64 of George Wilfred Hammond

Grave no. 81 of Alfred Edward Sewell, of Herbert Ayden Sewell and Grave no. 22 of Samuel Halesworth and who must have been a naval man. His epitaph: Farewell my wife and son dear my work on earth is done.

I leave this world of sin and care

For my eternal home.

Weep not, nor mourn for my beloved

Although from you I've passed.

For in that bright glad home above

We all may meet at last.

Departed in peace.

Grave no. 24 of Ellen Appegate

Her epitaph:

Sheaves after sowing, sun after rain

Sight after mystery, peace after pain

Joy after sorrow, calm after blast

Rest after weariness, sweet rest at last.

Grave no. 29 of George and Mary Ann Winyard

Their epitaph: Weep not dear friends, be content

For I to you was also lent

The Lord hath only had his due

And very soon may come for you.

Grave no. 42 of William Mallett

His epitaph:

He bade no one a last farewell

He waved his hand to none

He took his flight before we knew

That he had from us gone.

Grave no. 45 of Charles Jacob and Emily Anna Mutten

Their epitaph: Death little warning to me gave

But quickly called me to my grave

Make haste to Christ

Make no delay

For no-one knows their dying day.

Grave no. 48 of 'Little Martin' Hall

*When little Martin came home from school, he went to see his parents, who had the boatyard.
(Halls' Boatyard, where wherries were built)
There was an accident, involving Martin. A rudder fell on him, and the young boy died.*
