From the Rectory

At the time you are reading this I will probably be taking some holiday. Originally “holy days”, holidays were once provided to enable people to celebrate religious festivals. That connection is now all but severed, with only Christmas Day and Good Friday facilitating attendance at church - and not many do on either day (there aren’t many church services on Easter Monday). However, in Christian and Jewish thought, there is still something holy about holidays, derived from the commandment to keep the Sabbath.

While there is religious observance associated with the Sabbath in the Jewish Law, it is principally identified as a day of refraining from work. In the Exodus version of the commandment, this is linked with God’s resting after his six days of creation – wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day and hallowed it. However worthy the work that we do, our rest from it is itself holy – and, according to Genesis, part of the fabric of creation.

The version in Deuteronomy takes a different tack, referring to Israel’s history of slavery in Egypt; thereby highlighting an easily overlooked aspect of the commandment: that the order to rest equally applied to servants, slaves and migrant workers. Unlike most of our holidays, it isn’t a command to relax while other people wait on us! In our time, of course, the hospitality trade is glad to have our business (particularly after the worst of Covid) and staff are glad of the employment – but the commandment could be a reminder that they deserve courtesy, appreciation and a fair reward – as well as rest at another time.

But the commandment extends yet further: to domesticated animals, like oxen and donkeys. Elsewhere the Sabbath principle is applied to the land, to give it a fallow year of rest. A contributory factor in the current rise in the price of petrol and diesel is that the northern hemisphere’s summer holiday period results in an increase in demand for those fossil fuels – as well as aviation fuel. Given climate change, that should give us pause for thought. Tourism brings other pressures to bear on the natural environment from increased disturbance, damage or exploitation. We need to exercise responsibility in the holiday choices we make – is there a greener alternative? If we decide there isn’t, then maybe we should redouble our efforts to reduce our consumption and make space for nature when our holiday is over. The Sabbath was given for the flourishing of all God’s good creation – but we are working it to death.

In the love of God,

Martin Greenland

Church Notes

The Rector will be on leave at the end of June / beginning of July. During this time please contact one of the churchwardens listed on page 2. If a priest is urgently required, contact the Revd Kevin Billson on 01603 712299.

Due to the holiday season, please note there will be no service at Beighton or Halvergate on 3rd July; and no services at Limpenhoe during August. There are two Benefice Services during July: on 10th (at Limpenhoe) we welcome Canon Susanna Gunner, Diocesan Spirituality and Discipleship Adviser - several of us appreciated her evening visit back in Lent. Halvergate will be hosting us on 31st July.

BEIGHTON & MOULTON ST MARY CELEBRATIONS FOR HM THE QUEEN'S PLATINUM JUBILEE 5.

After all the months of planning and preparation by the combined committee of Beighton Village Hall and All Saints Church, the day had finally arrived – Saturday 4 June. The Music Marquee was up, the Beer Tent was up, the Extra Marquee was up (just in case the weather didn't play ball) and the gazebos were up. The stall holders arrived and set up in good time. All we needed was good weather (it did play ball – hooray!) and the people. Neither disappointed. It was a little chilly to start with and customers were a bit slow to venture out but both soon picked up. By early afternoon we were blessed with glorious sunshine and an estimated two hundred visitors.

All the games on offer proved very popular, especially the stocks. Hats off to Ian Dalby for stepping up to the plate as the bloke who got soaked. The position was offered to the Rector but he gracefully declined... Equally popular was the tug-o-war. After the children showed the adults how to do it, the men had their turn followed by the ladies and finally the mixed game. The ladies won - enough said. The stalls did a roaring trade, the burger van was kept very busy and the beer flowed. Inside the hall, the CCC (church catering corp) was equally busy with teas, coffees, cakes and savouries plus light lunches and strawberry teas. Throughout the afternoon, musical entertainment was provided by Dancing Dimensions, Saxobility, Josh Merchant (harpist), Amber Green (singer/songwriter) and Tree Fellas & Lady Byrds; all of whom gave fabulous performances from start to finish.

First prize of a trial flying lesson in the Grand Prize Draw was won by Colleen Fish of Beighton, second prize of a £100 grocery voucher was won by Frances Howell of Beighton and third prize of £100 cash was won by Mike Dumae c/o Brundall Farm Shop. There were twenty-four prizes altogether.

Later, a Jubilee Prize Bingo was held in the packed village hall to carry on the festivities into the evening. By the end of the day's events, the exhausted organisers retired home feeling extremely pleased with the support given. All proceeds will be divided equally between the Village Hall and All Saints Church to help keep these essential village amenities running.

Acle & District Royal British Legion

The high light of the June meeting of Acle Branch of the Royal British Legion held at 2pm on Friday 3rd June in the Bure Room of Acle Recreation Centre was a fascinating talk delivered by Wendy Reader about the World War I exploits of her grandfather, Fred Smith (aka Smudge), who also served in various parts of Europe.

Chairman Mark Lockwood afterwards led the very appreciative audience in a hearty round of applause and Wendy distributed signed copies of the book.

Freethorpe Jumble Sale Saturday August 20th at 11am

There will be a Jumble Sale at the Village Hall on this day.

All villagers will receive a collection bag that they can fill with unwanted items such as clothing, books, bric-a-brac, white elephant goods, small household goods, shoes and bags. This will be collected from your door on Wednesday 17th of August or you can bring your donations to the Hall on Saturday morning between 8am and 10am. Entrance fee is 50p. Come down and grab a bargain. All proceeds will go to the Village Hall. Surrounding villages can drop donations to 5a Church Rd in Reedham from the beginning of August.

OVER FIFTIES

What a few weeks we have had yet again. We have gained another new member this month - a lady from Ormesby this time. Our family continues to grow. Our platinum jubilee afternoon went well and as a surprise to members we had the Queen in attendance, albeit a cardboard statue. Members had their photos taken with her (see the front cover) which I will be putting in our annual club album. Yet another feast of memories for members. We had lovely buffet food provided by the committee and various members and as a special treat traditional English trifles made by Wendy Gitsham. Thank you to everyone who contributed food. Wendy & Sally were kept busy in the kitchen that day and for that we thank you both very much, your help on club days is greatly appreciated and also Ken, Amanda and Evan who put our tables out and then clear them away. We are so lucky to have such wonderful helpers. If you want to join us, we meet every Tuesday 1.30pm at Reedham Village Hall, just turn up. Next month we will have a Norfolk Day afternoon, so members start thinking about what you can wear!!!!

LOTTERY NEWS

Our lottery was won by Miss Heidi Lain. The jackpot this time was £237.00. Our lottery is open to non-members as well as members so if you would like to join just ring me on 07585504199. This helps to support our club and also at the end of each year we give a donation to various charities.

Reedham and District WI

Reedham WI celebrated the Platinum Jubilee in true WI style with a party for members and guests, a quiz, some prosecco and cake. We also sold a huge amount of tea and cake and the odd pot of homemade jam at the village celebrations hosted by Reedham church on 3rd June, and ran a bric-a-brac stall on Riverside earlier on the same day. By the evening, certain members required a foot massage, but it was good to be back involved in the community after 2 years spent avoiding most other people. Our next meeting is at Reedham village hall on Tuesday 5th July. The entertainment will be a talk, 'Life with Nanny', given by Ruth Smith. 7.30pm. We welcome prospective new members.

Acle ACT Prayer Walk

On the afternoon of Sunday 12th June Acle Churches Together (ACT) held its traditional annual prayer walk, stopping at various venues in the village to pray for the work performed by the staff employed within. The walk was led by the Church of England Rector, Revd. Martin Greenland, accompanied by Methodist Minister, Revd. Andrew King plus Roman Catholic Deacon, the Revd. Peter Glanville. Representatives from the three denominations joined together outside St Edmund's Church to recite initial prayers before proceeding to the Old Rectory, the Veterinary Hospital, the High School, Pyebush Cemetery, the Recreation Centre and finally the Methodist Centre, where Andrew King welcomed all participants inside for excellent refreshments – a fine example of the village of Acle's leading role in the practice of ecumenism.

JUBILEE JOLLY at Reedham Church

Many thanks to all those who contributed to making this such a fun event. Tea and cake was consumed at an alarming rate, queues of people tramped up the tower, others viewed the video, quaffed beer, bought plants or PTA goods. There were prizes for the art competition and bowling for the pig, plus a photo opportunity with royalty. The tug of war proved just too much fun for prizes and surely the best thing was the church filled with country dancing and laughter. The event began and ended with some celebratory bell ringing.

The sum of £241 was raised for the charities of the day – Great Yarmouth foodbank and Reedham Church bell fund.

MORE TOWER TOURS at REEDHAM CHURCH

If you want to climb the tower and didn't get the chance at the Jubilee, we are very happy to give you that opportunity. There are 88 steps up to the bells, you can also have a go at pulling a rope. Please contact Diana Gilder 07799 506809, leave a message and we will arrange a suitable time.

(The minimum age limit up to the bells is 5yrs, children able to climb steps independently and not require carrying down.)

We hope that many of you will have gained more insight into what we do and perhaps a few of you might even be inspired to give bell ringing a try. Training is free and we can match individuals up with an accredited bell ringing teacher. It takes about 12 concentrated hours work to learn to handle a bell safely, and then a lifetime to extend and develop your repertoire. Contact Mary Jones (mary.jones@bellringing.org) to learn more.

Reedham Primary School

Thank you to everybody who turned up to the Church Jubilee event. It was wonderful seeing so many faces bringing the community together in celebration of Her Majesty. The children especially loved the tug of war and well done to the children (and adults who got roped in) for leading the country dancing in the church so well under Miss Spaul's guidance.

End of an Era. We are sad to say goodbye to Mr Nick Pells today as he officially heads into retirement. Nick has been an absolutely brilliant caretaker and been responsible for, involved with and overseen many of the superb improvements undertaken in the school. We wish him a happy retirement and many rounds of bogey free golf.

Job opportunity: With Nick's retirement, we are looking for a new caretaker to start as soon as possible. Details of the vacancy can be found on the Norfolk Schools Vacancy Website. If you know of any suitable candidates, please let them know.

Friday Morning Stay and Play Sessions @ Reedham

Reedham Primary and Nursery School would like to invite local pre-school children to a series of Stay and Play sessions at our nursery.

They will be held between 9.15-10.15am; every Friday morning until the end of term.

A member of the school staff will be present to host each session, which will provide an introduction to what the nursery has to offer.

The opportunity is open to all children from 2 years plus, although younger siblings may also attend if they are still babies. A parent/carer must remain with the child throughout the session. There will be a maximum of 8 children at any session.

The sessions are free.

We hope that by providing an experience of nursery life it will help prepare children for their transition to school. If you would like to attend a Stay and Play session, please book via the school office (01493 700271)

Acle 49 Club (see picture on inside cover)

17.

The highlight of the June meeting of Acle's 49 Club held in St.Edmund's Church Hall at 2pm on Tuesday 7th was a fascinating talk delivered by Gina Hilton who took the audience around the world in 60 minutes in a yacht shorter than the length of a cricket pitch. It involved Gina with family members crossing three oceans via the Panama Canal on the journey of a lifetime.

Not only did she describe the flora and fauna of the countries visited but also the nature of the inhabitants, especially those of the smaller nations, such as those of Polynesian islands, all of whom she described as 'very friendly, welcoming and generous'.

Gina also highlighted the diversity of wildlife they saw. They also caught and ate many varieties of fish and got the chance to swim with sharks.

Some of the logistical issues which challenged them were also mentioned, including the acquisition of supplies plus division of labour, not to mention sea sickness problems. Overall it was magnificent entertainment for members of the '49 Club'.

And Vic Walsham, who compiled this report, welcomes those readers interested in joining this club to contact him on 01493 752273.

JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS AT WICKHAMPTON: Sunday 5 June

After nervously and regularly checking the weather apps, the sun didn't shine, but at least it didn't rain on our Jubilee picnic at the village playground – well, only at the end! Despite the chill, around 40 villagers and families brought tables, chairs, blankets and delicious picnics, and the theme was definitely red, white and blue. The children played "pin the jewel on the crown", "splat the rat" and "pass the parcel", and we all raised a toast to our very special guest of honour – Her Majesty! (See front cover)

JUBILEE BELLRINGING AT WICKHAMPTON

We may only have one bell at St Andrew's, but 5 of us took turns to ring it on Thursday 2 June from 19:52 hours to 20:22 hours to celebrate the Jubilee!

'HERE BE DRAGONS ...' Medieval monsters

A TALK BY IMOGEN CORRIGAN M. Phil FRSA

Saturday 30 July 2022: 7pm at Wickhampton Church

This talk will explore the fabulous monsters, mythical beasts and grotesques to be seen within manuscripts from the Middle Ages: some are funny, some downright disrespectful, but all show a strange mix of devotion with deformity, piety with profanity, and reverence with roguishness. Did these images have a purpose? What inspired them? Did they come from travellers' tales or from eating bad food, or were they made to make moral points?

TO BOOK YOUR PEW please email wickhampton@gmail.com Tickets: £5/person

The church café will be open from 6pm onwards.

NEW Nomads Theatre Company - Monthly Social Sessions 18.

Nomads Theatre Company are an amateur drama group in Reedham who have been running for almost 25 years. We are a small group of local people who meet on Friday evenings to rehearse for a pantomime. We usually meet every Friday between 7:30pm-9:30pm in the lead up to a production, but before rehearsals officially begin, we are holding monthly social meetings. We held one on 27th May and have our next meetings scheduled for 24th June, 29th July and 26th August (usually last Friday of the month). We sing songs from our next pantomime, Dick Whittington, laugh lots and eat biscuits. We also have some vacancies available for cast members, costumes design and technical support for the production. If you would like to come along to one of our next meetings and find out more about joining our amateur dramatics group, please come along to our next meeting at Reedham Village Hall at 7:30pm, or call/text our chairman Kerri-Anne on 07824468242. You can also contact us on Facebook. Kerri-Anne Watson

Answer to last month's Pathfinder Puzzle

v1. Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts,
Thou fount of life, Thou light of men,
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
We turn unfilled to Thee again.

v2. O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away;
Shed o'er the world Thy holy light.

Anglican Hymn Book 380 verses 1 and 5.

Outlook Pictures

Please remember to get permission from the parents for any 'recognizable' photos of children – and state this with the email. Also, photos work better sent as a separate attached file – otherwise they are so small they tend to 'pixilate' (not a good look). K.C.
